

RULES OF THE "EUROPEAN DYSTOPIA" CONTEST.

Article 1 - Organiser

This competition is brought to you by European Citizen Action Service (hereinafter, the "organiser"), whose registered office is located at Rue Cantersteen 12, 1000 Brussels, Belgium. Participation in the competition takes place on the ECAS Crowdsourcing Platform (<https://crowdsourcing.ecas.org>), and information on participation is accessible via the ECAS webpage (<https://ecas.org/projects/european-elections-dystopia/>) and official communication channels: Facebook (<https://www.facebook.com/ecas.europe>), Instagram (https://www.instagram.com/ecas_europe/), Twitter (https://twitter.com/ecas_europe) and LinkedIn (<https://www.linkedin.com/company/ecas-europe>) pages from 18 July 2023 to 30 November 2023.

Article 2 - Duration and conditions of the competition

2.1 Duration:

Participation in this competition is open on the ECAS Crowdsourcing Platform "European Dystopia" page (<https://crowdsourcing.ecas.org/en/Dystopia>) from 18 July 2023 11:00 am CET to 30 November 2023 11:59 pm CET (Belgian connection dates and times being taken as proof).

2.2 Conditions of access to the competition:

The competition is open to all natural persons of legal age, except for staff members of the European Citizen Action Service and the partners implementing the European Dystopia for sessions activity. Each natural person (online via the ECAS Crowdsourcing Platform) may participate only once. If several entries are detected, only the first one will be considered a valid entry. Participation in the competition is free of charge.

Article 3 - Terms and conditions of the competition

- The competition takes place on the ECAS Crowdsourcing Platform.
- In order to participate in the competition, the entire questionnaire must have been completed via the platform in 1 of the 8 available languages (<https://crowdsourcing.ecas.org/en/Dystopia>) using a registered account. Participants must also follow ECAS on at least two social media channels (Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram, Twitter).
- Only questionnaires submitted as a registered user (You will need to create an account and sign in when answering the questionnaire) will be included in the competition. Answering anonymously will not allow you to participate given that it will not be possible for us to get in touch with you in case you win.

- Participation in the competition implies acceptance, without reservation, of these rules.

Article 4 - Winners and prizes

There will be three prizes to be drawn.

1- Apple M2 MacBook Air 13"

2- Apple iPhone 14 128 GB

3- Once-in-a-lifetime experience to add to your travel bucket list

(<https://www.tinggly.com/collections/ultimate>)

Each participant can win only once.

The winners will be drawn on 6 December 2023 from all participants (individuals) who have completed the questionnaire with a registered user account and have followed ECAS on at least two (2) social media channels (Facebook, LinkedIn, Instagram, Twitter).

Article 5 - Description and delivery of the prize

The prize per winner consists of one of the three prizes mentioned in Article 4. There are three (3) winners.

The winners will be contacted by email by the ECAS team. Winners must respond within 14 calendar days by email to savannah.schuurbiers@ecas.org stating their first name, last name, and the address to which they wish to receive the prize. Otherwise, the prize will be lost for the winner concerned and will remain the property of the organiser.

The prize will be sent by post to the winners at their own risk or can be collected from the European Citizen Action Service headquarters. The organiser declines all responsibility for any incident or accident that may occur during the use or enjoyment of the prize won. No financial or other compensation is provided as a counter-value.

Article 6 - Changes to the competition

The organiser reserves the right, at any time and without prior notice or obligation to justify its decision, to shorten, extend, postpone or cancel the competition as well as to modify all or part of the conditions of access and/or the terms and conditions of implementation of the competition, in the event of force majeure or events beyond its control, without it being held liable or being able to claim any compensation as a result.

If changes are made to the rules, they will be indicated on the ECAS Crowdsourcing Platform (<https://crowdsourcing.ecas.org/en/Dystopia>).

Article 7 - Personal data

The organiser processes your personal data in accordance with the provisions of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation). The organiser shall ensure that the processing of your personal data is carried out in an appropriate and relevant manner and is limited to the purposes for which the data was collected. This data will be kept until 31 December 2023. If the participant wishes to have this data deleted at an earlier date, they can send an email to savannah.schuurbiers@ecas.org.

Damages resulting from the use of the participant's personal data by unauthorised persons can in no way be passed on to the organiser if they have taken all the necessary security measures that can reasonably be expected of them.

For more information, you can consult our Privacy Policy.

Article 8 - Disputes

All disputes concerning the application of these rules will be handled autonomously by the organiser. In this case, it is sufficient to send an email with the complaint to savannah.schuurbiers@ecas.org.

Article 9 - Contact

For questions or problems concerning the competition, interested parties can contact the European Democracy Coordinator, Savannah Schuurbiens, via email: savannah.schuurbiers@ecas.org or European Citizen Action Service via:
